

GENERAL NEWS

What's playing Oct 10th - 17th

This week's highlights:

It's a packed week with over 100 events including 10 film festivals. There are not enough hours in the day to take everything in.

If you want a little international flavor, check out German Currents 2014 and Recent Spanish Cinema 2014 at The Egyptian or The Polish Film Festival at Laemmle's Noho 7 and Royal Theatres.

There is a broad array of programming at the Hollywood Film Festival while the La Femme Film Festival showcases work by female filmmakers.

Being October don't miss the 14th Annual Screamfest Film Festival showcasing the best in horror films. As a personal plug, I will be moderating the Q&A after the shorts block screenings on October 15th, 16th and 19th.

All this and more in the FilmRadar 618th edition.

An Interview With Jennie Kong, Writer/Director of The Resolution

I recently had the chance to chat with Writer/Director Jennie Kong about her outstanding short film, The Resolution.

A Chat About DUALITY

DUALITY is a stunning beautiful short film and I recently had the pleasure to sit down with Director Emad Asfoury, Writer/Star Sarah Kynn Dawson and Executive Producer Peymaneh Rothstein to discuss the making of the film, the narrative complexity and working with Deepka Chopra

Current Exhibitions

Haunted Screens: German Cinema in the 1920s
September 21, 2014 - April 26, 2015
This exhibition explores masterworks of German Expressionist cinema. From the stylized fantasy of The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari to the chilling murder mystery M, cinema during the liberal Weimar era was innovative in aesthetic, psychological, and technical terms.

Hollywood Costume
October 2, 2014 - March 2, 2015
This ticketed exhibition explores the central role of costume design—from the glamorous to the very subtle—as an essential tool of cinematic storytelling. The exhibition brings together the world's most iconic costumes from the Golden Age of cinema to the present.

Light & Noir: Exiles and Émigrés in Hollywood, 1933-1950
October 23, 2014 - March 1, 2015
This exhibit explores how the experiences of German-speaking exiles and émigrés who fled Nazi Europe—many of them Jews—inspired the classic films of Hollywood's Golden Age.
