

Latido Titles at the 'Recent Spanish Cinema' Exhibition in LA

We are very proud to announce that HAPPY 140 and REQUIREMENTS TO BE A NORMAL PERSON will be screened at the XXI edition of the 'Recent Spanish Cinema' Exhibition in Los Angeles

Between 15 and 18 October, the Egyptian Theatre of Hollywood will host the screening of both recent and prominent Spanish films.

Since 1994 the Institute of Cinematography and Audiovisual Arts of Spain (ICAA), the American Cinematheque and EGEDA are producing this exhibition that has discovered great talents of Spanish Cinema to North-American Audiences.

The official sponsors for this event are the Embassy of Spain in Washington, the Spain/USA Foundation, the Consulate General of Spain in Los Angeles, Marca España (the High Commissioner of the Spanish Government for the Spain Brand) and Spain Arts and Culture.

More info: www.larecentspanishcinema.com

Screening Schedule:

HAPPY 140: October 16 at 7.30pm (Egyptian Theatre, Hollywood).

Directed by Gracia Querejeta, this movie was at the San Sebastian Film Festival (Made in Spain Section).

REQUIREMENTS TO BE A NORMAL PERSON: October 17 at 7.30pm (Egyptian Theatre, Hollywood).

Directed by Leticia Dolera, this movie was a Big Winner at the Málaga Film Festival (Best First Original Script – Novel, Best Photography, Best Editing, Special Young Jury Award and Signis Award).